

Partner name:	Vysočina Education
Tool name :	Google forms
Main objective of the tool (cf. category)	Online Tool for creating forms
Advantages of a tool:	It's online and as free access; All the work done stays in the account (cloud); Possible anonymous answers from respondents Possible to share a form and also responses Fast and easy visual presentation of responses Various possibilities to collect and present answers Instructions can be in more languages
Disadvantages of a tool:	An owner of a form must have a Google account, also the ones who wants to share Respondents does not need an account
Your own experience with a tool:	Very intuitive Can be adjusted for various purposes, also gives possibility to customize visual themes Good for presenting outcomes and researches
Recommendations:	Create your answers wisely and precisely
Use for interdisciplinary teaching and training. (for team building, for creating mental maps to discuss, for self-evaluation, for decision making etc.)	Yes, it can be used. Students can guess answers or vote different options anonymously, teacher can present ideas from students and build further understanding. Google has wide range of options – mind maps, presentations, collecting data etc.

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License.